

Nebraska vs. Vanderbilt

Official Program – 15 cents

December 23, 1974

Perennial Southern basketball power Vanderbilt invades Nebraska's Coliseum tonight as the Huskers try to avenge last year's 82-58 loss to the Commodores.

Nebraska returns to Lincoln after participating in the Indiana Classic at Bloomington. Southern Methodist University was the Huskers first round opponent. Indiana played Creighton in the Classic's other first round contest.

This will be Nebraska's fourth home game of the season. While at home the Huskers are 2-1, beating South Dakota State, Wichita State and losing to San Jose State.

Nebraska's next home game will be its Big 8 opener against Kansas State at 2 p.m. on Saturday, January 18. The K-State clash will also be on regional television.

Coach Roy Skinner's Commodores are returning from Los Angeles where they participated in the University of Southern California Trojan Invitational. Vanderbilt met USC in a first round game and New Mexico and Jacksonville completed the tournament.

Through the games of Dec. 9, Vanderbilt was 4-0. The Commodores defeated St. John's, won their own tournament by beating Virginia Tech and Southern Illinois, and beat Texas Tech.

Leading Vanderbilt is 6-6 junior forward Jeff Fosnes who has a per-game-average of 23.8 points after four games. Other leaders for the Commodores are 6-4 forward Butch Feher 15.0, 6-7 center Mike Moore 12.0, 6-2 guard Joe Ford 18.5 and 5-11 guard Dicky Keffer 6.5.

Although this is a rebuilding year for the Commodores since they lost four lettermen from last year's first place Southeastern club, Skinner said he is very pleased with his team's progress.

"I am very pleasantly surprised with our season," he said. "We have gotten some unexpected, great play from our freshmen."

Vanderbilt leads the series with the Huskers 3-0. Last year, Nebraska lost to the Commodores (82-58) in the first round of the Vanderbilt Invitational.
